Mandich Makes Plans To Assume Treasurer Post

Expect Formal Appointment From Governor
Earle To Be Made Shortly

HOLSINGER-WIMER WILL BE DEPUTIES

Arrangements Are Being Made For Bond So Treasurer Can Assume Duties

While the appointment of V. I. Mandich, of Bessemer, as county treasurer has not yet been announced by Governor George H. Earle, it is expected shortly.

In the meantime, in order to get all details cleared away as soon as possible, the county commissioners, the county controller and their solicitors met with Mr. Mandich today and agreed upon a course of procedure to be followed immediately after the appointment is made.

Mr. Mandich said to the solicitors that in his estimation the office could be more efficiently and more economically handled with two men as deputies. The commissioners agreed to the appointment of John L. Holsinger as chief deputy, and for the second deputy, former city controller Earl R. Wimer.

Bond Is Immediate Problem

Before a county treasurer can assume office he must have a bond. A surety bond covering the treasurer in full amounts to $270,000 and this will require several weeks, it is said. Mr. Mandich suggested that he be permitted to file a personal bond to cover only such moneys as are paid in to him and that pending the approval of a permanent bond that the moneys now in banks be left in the custody of the county controller. This was agreed to by the commissioners and this afternoon the arrangements for the temporary personal bond are being made. By reason of the arrangements it may be possible for Mr. Mandich to get into the office in immediately upon appointment. This is most desirable as the commission says as until some one takes the office most of the county fiscal business is suspended.

Mr. Mandich has a wealth of experience back of him to qualify him for the job. For the past seventeen years he has been the assistant cashier of the Bessemer State Bank. The men who will serve with him are competent also and it is felt that within a short time they will have the office functioning in an efficient manner.

PA NEW OBSERVES

No new deliriums are noted in the local district in the Detroit Bulletin of the Pennsylvania State Highway system for the period ending May 23. PA New notes. Only four bridges remain to be built of the thirty some which were washed out by floods in the past two years.

Way out Clinton avenue, we saw that a "warm friend" of the family, last winter, had been set out on the porch. It was one of those nice "air tight" stoves.

Saw a horse being led along Croton avenue. He had been newly shod. Wonder where he got his new shoes?

Yesterday afternoon near Martin street, a small boy was going alone, with an umbrella over his head, and a wet shirt waist. He had been caught in the rain on the way to school, and had been sent home to get into some dry clothes.

PA News noted an auto from Kansas packed on North Meritt street last night, which had a screen fastened over the front of the radiator.

New Jr. C. Of C. Officers Are Installed At Banquet

With most of its membership present to witness the ceremonies, new officers of the New Castle Junior Chamber of Commerce were formally inducted into office at a banquet in the W. W. C. A. last night.

Presley N. Jones, re-elected to the organization's presidency in the annual election two weeks ago, was installed as the leader again last night.

With him were inducted John P. Branton, the new vice president; L. Lewis, the re-elected secretary; Hubert Sadler, the new treasurer; and W. Howard Gilmore, H. Gill Brown, Earl C. Ruby, William H. Milson, Robert Weimer and Odey Foster, all directors.

Ceremonies of installation were brief and followed an address by S. D. Graff, Peniston, special motion picture films on industries of Lawrence county, projected by Clay Aibel and the routine business session.

President Jones and the other 1938-39 officers officially begin their terms June 1 and will serve until May 31, 1939.

Returning from junior chamber offices last night were Vice President, W. Howard Gilmore and Treasurer, G. Arthur Lowman. Re-elected directors included Loy H. Patterson, Gust Sanfilippo, W. Herbert Smith and Daniel H. Trehear, Jr.

In the business meeting last night the organization voted to remove the maximum age limit provision of its by-laws. The action came when an amendment to the by-laws was proposed and submitted for vote.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce here, since its inception, has grown rapidly and reports given by officers last night predict even greater expansion.

Mr. Pearson took a general business theme for his interesting discussion last night.

Howard M. Wylie was chairman of the dinner arrangements.

The agency quoted a Tokyo foreign office spokesman as stating an official inquiry had established Butler's statement to be false, and that it "seriously compromised the honor and prestige of the Japanese navy."

According to the news agency a spokesman for the Japanese navy similarly condemned Butler's statement, declaring:

"The imperial navy cannot but regret the allegation made by Mr. Butler, which heaps false accusations upon the Japanese marine forces."

Reports from Hankow said the Chinese defenders were using tanks in mass formation in an effort to halt the Nipponese.

Previously the Japanese were reported to have entered Langfang, engaging Chinese there in bloody hand-to-hand warfare to capture the city. The Chinese disputed this, and asserted Langfang was completely in their hands.

War-Like Tension In Czech Dispute Appears Relieved

Conferences Are Believed Preparing Way For Peaceful Solution

SUDETEN PROBLEM MAY BE ADJUSTED

Hitler Reported Enroute From Bavarian Retreat For Berlin Conference

By GEORGE LANGWELL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PRAGUE, May 24.—Hopes for peace in the Sudeten Czech crisis were revived today as the result of an historic three-hour conference between Premier Milan Hlada of Czechoslovakia and Konrad Henlein, leader of the 450,000 Sudeten Germans.

Assessment of a Nazi Sudeten spokesman that results of the conference "were not unfavorable" sent the Czech government back to the drawing boards. The speaker said Henlein had shown himself willing to accept a conciliatory attitude.

Believe War-Like Tension In view of the stand taken by Hlada, it was reported that Germany likewise took concrete action to relieve the war-like tension.

According to Henlein's spokesman, the German military authorities had formed the Czech government and German troops which had been concentrated around the border since Friday, are now being withdrawn.

Henlein was reluctant to discuss his conversation with Hlada at first, but later indicated this conversation would continue today, but at 10 a. m. the Sudeten leader declared for his home town, Aush. It was understood later that the Hlada-Henlein talks will be continued tomorrow.

Informal quarters said Hlada planned before Henlein the draft of a minority statute aimed at settling the Sudeten problem (Continued On Page Two)

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Department of Justice officials were investigating a series of thefts at the White House today. Arrest of a suspect who has been under surveillance for some time is expected shortly.

The thefts have been carried on for about a year. Almost $1,200 has disappeared in that time according to White House officials.

Boldness of the thief, who has been apparently carrying on his depredations right under the noses of the president, Mrs. Roosevelt and the White House family have the president's aides frankly worried.

Money Taken Money has been taken from upper rooms in the White House. Several persons, including the president's personal secretary, Miss Margaret Lehman, have found their purses rifled.

Another of the president's confidential clerks, Miss Grace Tully, had a dress stolen by the mysterious prowler.

Thefts have occurred with such frequency and over such a long period of time that the White House family refer to the thief as "the White House thief."

About $200 in cash has vanished from the White House police organization's fund, which is kept in one of the ground floor offices of the White House.

Joseph Sheehan, chief messenger of the White House, has reported that his petty cash drawer has been rifled frequently and various sums taken.

Lewis Returns From Convention

David Lewis of 411 East Linton st. has returned from Pittsburgh where he was a delegate to the convention of the Congressional churches of Pennsylvania, which was held at the Birmingham Congregational church on the South Side.

On Sunday evening choruses from those various churches sang various sacred selections. There was a chorus of thirty voices from this city, that sang two well known Welsh hymns "Buddiedied" and "Rachel" which were well received. Czechoslovakian and German choruses also sang hymns in their native tongue. Then an old favorite hymn of the church was sung in unison, each in his own language.

Don't mind the rain, you're getting none, you'll need it by and by, when summer slips away from June and we are in July. The corn will need moisture much, so till the hay and put in your corn, and up to now, they don't. But give them some, days of sun and rain, when they will do with seeds and a little hose team, the weather's story, too.

EDUCATIONAL GROUP HEARS FINE ADDRESS

Closing a highly successful season, members of the Educational Department of Woman's Club held their final meeting of the year Monday afternoon in the Highland United Presbyterian church with Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools, as guest speaker.

In introducing the speaker, Mrs. William Magraf, chairman of the department, mentioned the appropriateness that the leader in education in New Castle should address the Educational department.

Dr. Green discussed in an informal manner, the school system of New Castle, stressing the fact that our school system is progressive but not radical. New Castle schools use the 6-3-3 plan, that is, six years of elementary work, three years of junior high school work and three years of senior high school work. Although many do not realize it, the Junior high was organized for the very definite purpose of meeting the psychological as well as physical needs of children in the early adolescent stage.

The speaker stated that there is nothing more important to a child of senior high school age than educational guidance. The tendency is far too great to let Johnny take this course because Jimmy is taking it. Parents should study the needs of the individual child. The tendency in senior high school is to follow the secretarial course with about three hundred people graduating from the course each year, to fill about three openings for that work in this city. Dr. Green strongly recommended the vocational home-making course which teaches the science of home making for girls. One thing lacking in our school system is vocational education for boys.

Another feature of the New Castle school system is the Platoon system. While most large cities have some schools using the Platoon System, New Castle is the only city in Western Pennsylvania where all schools are of this type. In schools using this system one half of the school is studying academic subjects—reading, writing, etc.—while the other half is studying extracurricular subjects—art, music and the like. Because of the system, New Castle children like to go to school, and very little attendance difficulty is encountered.

In any public group, New Castle school children are far more at home than any other children of the same age would be. This is the direct result of our modern and progressive schools.

At the end of his address, Doctor Green conducted a forum, during which many questions of interest were discussed. The speaker closed with the statement that he is always eager to discuss problems with parents at his office.

Mrs. Magraf thanked members of her executive committee, Mrs. C. C. Green, Mrs. Roy Conway and Mrs. E. L. Thompson for their cooperation, and all members of the department for their support, during the past year.

Good Advice About Constipation!

A doctor would tell you that the best thing to do with any ailment is to get at its cause. If you are constipated, don't fiddle with makeshift remedies. Find out what's giving you the trouble!

Chances are you won't have to look very far, if you eat just the things most people do. Most likely you don't eat enough "bulk" and "bulk" doesn't mean just a lot of food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If this is what you lack, your ticket is crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran breakfast. It contains the "bulk" you need plus the intestinal tonic, vitamin B. Eat it every day, drink plenty of water, and join the "regulars"! All-Bran is made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

MINISTER'S WIVES AT HEATON RESIDENCE

Mrs. Charles H. Heaton, at her home on Park avenue, was a charming hostess Monday evening to the Ministers Wives Club. As her co-hostess she had the valuable aid of Mrs. E. E. Douglas, from East Brook. Plans for the annual breakfast for members and their families were made. The event is on calendar for 9 o'clock Monday morning, June 27, at Cascade Park. On the committee of arrangements are Mrs. D. L. Ferguson, chairman, Mrs. Margaret Hanna, Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine, Mrs. A. P. Shaffer and Mrs. C. N. Moore.

Special guests last evening were Mrs. J. W. Neyman, the Misses Grace and Frances Hickok, of New Castle, and Mrs. H. H. Martin, of East Brook.

Mrs. Martin pleased the women very highly with her splendid account of life in India where she served some years ago as a missionary. She sang several songs in native dialect, and displayed jewelry and costumes from that land.

The hostesses assisted by the Misses Hickok served a lovely lunch at four nicely appointed tables at the close of the program. One of the lovely local musicians had been sent by Mrs. Heaton from Manila by her daughter, Beulah, a missionary in the Philippines. Another had come from Japan.

Except for the picnic on June 27 there will be no further meetings of the Ministers Wives until October 31, when they will gather at the home of Mrs. Margaret Hanna, Lincoln avenue. Election of new officers will take place on that occasion.

South American Business Causes Officials Worry

Study Trade Sheets With Mixed Feelings. General Business Setback Noticeable

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Administration trade experts studied 1937 South American business with mixed feelings today. They found a general trend toward trade depression, but also a number of bright spots, such as the recovery of Chile, but noted a general business setback toward the end of the year.

Back for the first time, the Pan American trade mission, which had been in South America for several months, returned to the United States. The mission, which had been in South America for several months, returned to the United States. The mission, which had been in South America for several months, returned to the United States.

Displace Germany. Fourteen Latin American countries signed 35 most-favored-nation trade treaties, the type favored by Secretary of State Hull in his reciprocal trade policy. Only 16 in Latin America trade agreements of the type advocated by Germany were promulgated, these amounting to 10 percent.

The United States displaced Germany during 1937 as the principal supplier to Chile, and maintained its leadership as Chile's leading market. U. S. sales to that republic rose from $7,000,000 pesos in 1936 to $14,000,000 pesos in 1937, while German sales over the same period, increased only 12,000,000 pesos, from $9,000,000 to $11,000,000 pesos.

School Head Urges Preparatory Steps

Dr. Green Advises Parents To Prepare Youngsters For School Entrance

Children entering school for the first time next fall should be in good physical condition so as to make the most of their study. School authorities urge that parents take their pre-school children to their family physician immediately so that any defect found can be remedied before the summer months.

Particularly are the vision, hearing, condition of the tonsils, adenoids, teeth and nutrition, according to Superintendent C. C. Green today.

Vaccination against smallpox is compulsory and should be done now rather than immediately before school opens. The giving of toxoid to protect against diphtheria is very desirable. If this is done one should obtain a certificate from the doctor stating when it was given. This is so the school may have a record of those who have had toxoid on admission.

Colored Man Jumps Into Creek

Scrambles Out Unaided Brought To County Jail For Observation

Believed to have been mentally affected, Edward Williams, colored, of 923 Moravia street, jumped into Mill creek at Grant City yesterday. However, he got out of the creek himself and was found along the embankment by WPA workers.

According to reports, Williams was working with WPA employees who are beautifying the sides of Route 19, at Grant City. Williams suddenly began acting queerly and several of the men tried to hold him. However, he broke loose and leaped into the creek.

The water is not very deep at that point and when men went to look and pull him from the river they could not find him. However, they soon heard him shouting on the other side of the embankment.

A telephone call which was sent to the State Motor police station here resulted in Patrolman Yahner and Mastian motoring to the scene. They brought Williams to the county jail here for observation.

Need New Storm Sewer To Prevent Cellar Flooding

City Engineer Reports On Steps Needed To Aid Washington Street Water Condition

There is not much hope of alleviating flood water conditions during heavy rainfalls in Washington street until a new storm sewer is constructed between East street and the Shenango river. City Engineer Glenn R. Throppe informed council at a meeting in city hall Monday. Throppe said he estimated the cost of such a sewer would be $23,648. This would not include the cost of repaving. Throppe said.

Councilman William H. Dunlap suggested that were such a sewer proposed it might be a better plan to construct it piecemeal, starting first at the east side of North Jefferson street and then extending it to the Shenango river. This would cost about $9,400, without repaving. Throppe advised.

Chills in business houses at West Washington and Beaver streets usually are flooded when a heavy downpour occurs because of water from the north hill flowing south and not being absorbed by storm sewers. This situation was caused, it was stated, by changes made when the state did work in West Washington street at Beaver street.

Throppe's information was referred to committee for consideration. Dunlap declaring that something should be done to alleviate the present situation. Colleagues agreed to Dunlap's motion.

Provides Method For Sidewalk Work

During council meeting in the city building Monday, Councilman J. M. Rice submitted a bill describing the method under which property owners shall have sidewalk replacements made as a city-WPA project.

The property owners must apply to the city engineer and state where the replacement is to be made then pay the city treasurer at the rate of 16 cents a square foot for the materials.

After the property owner receives a receipt he will show it to the city engineer and the men assigned to do the work will receive instructions, to make the replacements, the bill said.

The measure was referred to committee.

Special Legislative Session Now Looming

HARRISBURG, May 24.—Should a special session of the legislature be called after the fall elections to provide relief funds for the states needy? It would be the eighth special session of the legislature since 1791. In addition, a special session of the senate was called in 1891 by Governor Pattison.

Gov. George H. Earle's statement at a press conference that present relief funds would probably be depleted by the end of November at the present rate of expenditure confirms an exclusive story by International News Service carried a week earlier. It was pointed out then that a probable $48,000,000 deficit was faced by the Department of Public Assistance at the present rate of expenditure of relief funds.

The special session, if called, would consider only topics presented for its consideration by Governor Earle. The regular session of the legislature meets January 3.

The week following primary election gave Capitol Hill some of the aspects of a period when the legislature is in session. It was occasioned by the meetings, simultaneously of the state supreme court, the state board of pardons, and the Public Utility commission.

Diphtheria prevention week will be observed in many Pennsylvania cities with free inoculation of young children. In Harrisburg the Dauphin County Medical society has sent 2500 cards to parents announcing inoculation of children free to those who cannot pay and a $1 fee for those who can.

Dash For Freedom At Alcatraz Prison Is Unsuccessful

One Convict Is Dead Of Wounds

Second Convict And Guard Are Wounded As Result Of Outbreak

CAPONE STABBER IS NAMED RINGLEADER

(Associated Press Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—A desperate, unsuccessful dash to freedom by three Alcatraz Island federal prison convicts today left one felon dead, a prison guard reported near death, and another convict wounded.

Death of Thomas P. Limerick, 35, kidnaper serving a life term who was shot through the head by guards, was revealed today by the coroner's office in San Francisco. He died nine hours after the bloody melee as guards quelled the escape attempt.

Fatally Wounded
Limerick was fatally wounded as the convict trio escaped with a guard on the roof of the factory building where they had been working, after blackening and critically wounding an unarmed guard in the workshop.

In Marine hospital, reported "growing weaker" was senior custodial officer R. C. Cline, 40, who suffered a fractured skull when the felons suddenly rushed him and rained hammer blows on his head. The wounded prisoner, Rufus Franklin, 24, Alabama, murderer and bank robber, serving 30 years, was reported in no danger at the prison hospital. He was shot through the shoulder.

Lucas Ringleader
As Warden James A. Johnston ordered a complete investigation of the bloody attempted break, the ringleader of the unsuccessful escape attempt, James C. Lucas, 26, Texas bank robber, maintained a clinical silence.

Clubbing submission and taken to a dumber cell, Lucas, described by Johnston as "one of our most vicious convicts," refused to discuss the escape attempt.
"It was just one of those things," he told Johnston. "We thought we could get away with it—but we didn't."

Turn On Guard
More than a year ago Lucas stabbed and seriously wounded Al Capone, former Chicago underworld boss, because he thought the one-eyed "Scarface" had told prison officials Lucas was a leader of the prison mutiny in 1936.

The trio, working in the wood-working shop on the top floor of the factory building, suddenly turned on guard Cline, who was unarmed, and beat him to the floor.

Apparently intending to fight their way to a prison boat moored at a nearby dock, possibly taking guards along as hostages, the convicts clambered out a window and up to the roof of the structure.

Swinging hammers and iron weights, the trio rushed a patrol guard on the roof, who had his back turned to them, in order to get his rifle.

A guard in a watch tower spotted the onslaught upon the unsuspecting guard and a warning shout brought a volley of rifle fire from several guards.

Franklin fell, but Limerick ran on, hurling a heavy weight at the patrol guard. The officer turned in time to duck the missile and fire point blank, wounding Limerick in the head.

Cowed, Lucas dropped his blood-stained gun and ran for shelter from the hail of lead, screaming for mercy.

Happenings And Items Of Interest At Big Tin Plate Plants Here.

FOR THE EYES OF THE PUBLIC
Most people think the other fellow's job is easier. That is human nature. It helps to explain, too, why so many people have a distorted idea of iron and steel making. "Sure, it's one of those mass production industries," they say, putting the emphasis on "mass."

It is true that many of its products are massive, running to great size and weight, but "massive" production is not the same as "mass" production. In mass output a few standardized products are turned out in great quantities. In the iron and steel industry many thousands of products, differing in size, shape, chemical composition and physical properties, are manufactured. The job of making and distributing these products calls for the combined efforts of many thousands of people with many different kinds of skill and training, and it requires heavy investments in mines, plants and equipment. We, in the United States Steel organization, can be expected to know, in part at least, what it takes to make steel, but the many millions outside our industry will never know until they can see with their own eyes and hear with their own ears.

They will get that opportunity—motion pictures in sound and color this week in one of our local theaters. These moving pictures will take the public through all of the principal operations of our industry from the mining of the ore to the rolling of the finished product. The public will see and hear for itself.

SHENANGOGRAMS
A doctor had an urgent call from a man who reported that his small son had sucked all the ink out of a fountain pen and swallowed it. "All right, I'll come over at once," replied the doctor. "What have you been doing in the meantime?"

And the man answered: "Using a pencil."

The electrician was puzzled. "Hey," he called to his assistant, "put your hand on one of those wires." The assistant did as he was told.

He: "Baby, I can read you like a book."
She: "O. K., but lay off the Braille method."

Mr. Black: "We really must get a new car, John."
Mrs. Black: "What! When we're still paying installments on the car I exchanged for the car I sold in part payment for the car we've got now?"

since they deflect the rays of the sun. Don't subject your skin to excessive doses of sunburn, but rather acquire your tan in small quantities, especially at first. The use of dark glasses is also advisable when you are in the bright sunlight for any length of time.

Get plenty of rest, at least eight hours every night. It is often a temptation to stay up late when the evenings are warm and sultry, but even if you cannot go to sleep immediately, you can derive much benefit from complete relaxation.

If we follow these simple rules during the coming months, we will find the hot weather less annoying.

When it comes to safety Ed. does not rely on his memory as evidenced by the pencil and pad used in jotting down any unsafe conditions. This department is on its toes in safety, having better than 500 consecutive days without a lost time accident.

Maurice Sadler telling the boys about his recent trip to New York City, where he greeted his sister upon her arrival from Australia on the Empress of Britain. He had an interesting visit on board of this ocean greyhound, also visited the Empire State Building, stating a blizzard was in progress on top of the building and folks tanning themselves on the pavement.

A. C. Piper, former hot mill superintendent, National Works, Moenness, Pa., has been transferred to Shenango Works. Mr. Piper was formerly a hot mill foreman at Shenango ten years ago, and is well known to the boys in the hot mill department.

George Zerner, former hot mill superintendent, now retired, was a visitor last week.

Dave Tucker, structural shop, was appointed a director of the Shenango Works Relief Association in place of Wm. Trover, who was transferred to Irvin Works.

TO IRVIN WORKS
Charles Parfitt, order department, has been transferred to the inspection department at Irvin Works. On last Thursday he was presented with a beautiful traveling bag by his associates in the general office—the presentation speech being made by Warren Weide in his inimitable style. Charlie has been with us for the past few years, having been transferred here from New Kensington, and during that time has gained a host of friends who regret his departure, but who are pleased with his advancement. During the past year he developed quite a farm on Route 18, and the boys are wondering how he will get his livestock (two of them) into those rather congested apartments in the Pittsburgh district.

James Barrett is still confined to his home through illness.

John Ingham, pickling department, visited in Baltimore, Md., last week.

Gain Freedom

MANY HEAD FOR FRENCH BORDER

(International News Service)
HENDAY, France—Spanish border guards today reported that a group of about 1,000 to 2,000 loyalist prisoners had fled from the San Cristobal camp in a mass break.

The bombardment of the border town followed reports that some of the government prisoners who escaped from the Spanish Insurgent prison at Pamplona had crossed into France.

Prisoners escape
Advices coming across the border, but not officially confirmed, indicated between 1,000 and 2,000 government troops captured during the civil war escaped from the San Cristobal prison in a mass break.

Refugees who crossed the pyrenees into France said the entire Navarre countryside was the scene of a giant insurgent hunt for the escaped prisoners.

It was also reported that the government and loyalist forces were still in the San Cristobal prison were slain when the prison broke took place.

More Are Released
At Madrid the government radio station told of another daring raid in which still more government prisoners were released from an insurgent prison camp near Malaga.

Thirty government troops landed from small craft near Malaga under cover of darkness, according to this report, and overpowered the insurgent garrison at the prison camp. They released 300 Asturian prisoners and sailed with them to freedom, the broadcast related.

River Journey Is Completed

Two Men Ride Motorboat
From Headwaters Of Allegheny To Pittsburgh

MANY HARDSHIPS WERE ENCOUNTERED

PITTSBURGH, May 24. A new chapter was added to local river history today with the completion of a motorboat journey from the headwaters of the Allegheny to its confluence here, over sections heretofore considered unpassable.

From Red Bank to Clear, N. Y., a 61-mile stretch, the Allegheny is so shallow that rivermen believed the waters unsuitable for navigation. Last week, Captain Fred Way, a mid-mannered chap, took it upon himself to upset this theory.

Using an 18-foot motorboat which drew 400 lbs. of water, the skipper, and his crew of one—a brother-in-law, Fred D. Morrison, bumped and scraped their way down the entire length of the Allegheny, setting a new precedent for river traffic.

At Clear, where water from the Reddy marshes and bays of the uplands spills together to form the Allegheny, the river was just a trickle over eight inches deep. Using a dredge, man-power for pushing, and a four-horse power motor, the crew managed to work the boat, the "Lady Grace," named after the skipper's wife, down the narrow trail. The journey required eight days. Practically all the paint was scraped from the boat's undersides.

Original intention of Captain Way was to chart the numerous islands to dot the upper reaches but so many were found that the project was given up. Instead a tally was kept by marking "X's" on the boat. By the time they reached here they had counted 105.

At Rimer, Pa., the captain had to "bitchin" through Lock No. 9. Repairs were being made to the lock but a road-master superintendent supplied a truck to ferry the craft past the point.

Transferring the new Italian commercial air service between Italy and Brazil, Major Umberto Kincaid, president of the line, flew from Rome to Baltimore, West Africa in less than 12 hours.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GAMES RAINED OUT

By ANTHONY J. PUGLIESE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 24.—In a manner not unlike a circus performer on a creaked pole, the New York Giants gradually are coming back to the field in the National League race today.

Bill Terry's team is virtually the same as won last year's pennant and faltered before the attack of the Yankees in the world series. The current injury-riddled aggregation seems to have split at the seams. Where the present slump—which yesterday reached six out of eight—will end, it's hard to say.

Miss Whitehead
The Giants miss Burgess Whitehead, the snappy second baseman who is out for the season with a nervous breakdown. Hank Lister who spark plugged their attack in the early stages of the campaign is still on the sidelines, and Wally Berger can in no way fill his shoes.

The confidence of the Giants is lacking, the team is not hitting and the pitching is spotty. Carl Hubbell and Cliff Melton have been proven not invincible, and Hal Schumacher has not finished a game in a month. It adds up to a two and a half game lead over the Chicago Cubs, as compared with a six-game lead the Giants had earlier in the race.

Pirates Top Giants
Bunching four hits for four runs in the first inning, the Pittsburgh Pirates beat Harry Gumbert and the Giants 4 to 3 yesterday. Gumbert yielded only four hits after the first. Cy Blanton, Mase Brown and Russ Bauers held the Giants to seven blows, including Mel Ott's eighth homer of the year.

In Boston, the Cubs cut the Giants' lead a full game by snapping the Boston Bees' winning streak at seven straight by a score of 4 to 1. Bill Lee held the Bees to six hits to win his third game, while Lou Fette limited the Cubs to five, including Gabby Hartnett's winning homer with one on base.

Reds Advance
The Cincinnati Reds replaced the Bees in third place in the standings by taking their second straight from Brooklyn, 6 to 4. The Reds scored five runs on four hits in their third

Local Boys Lose Amateur Battles

off Bill Posedel and Vito Tamulla

Local boys lost their amateur boxing bouts yesterday at the Elks club where six amateur bouts were staged. Frankie Moran, the local featherweight was defeated by Mike Conella, Golden Gloves champion of Youngstown, and Jack Matthews of Wampum dropped a three round decision to Steve Morgan of Youngstown. Despite their defeat, Moran and Matthews showed plenty of punches. Benny Rhiel was the only local boy to win his bout. Benny Battle of Ellwood City and Frankie Carik of Youngstown slugged almost too for three chapters and had the fans on edge throughout the show. There was not a vacant chair in the clubroom.

Ohio Fighters Romp Home With Decisions Won At Elks Club

There were no knockouts but there was plenty of action last night at the Elks club where six amateur boxing bouts were staged. Frankie Moran, the local featherweight was defeated by Mike Conella, Golden Gloves champion of Youngstown, and Jack Matthews of Wampum dropped a three round decision to Steve Morgan of Youngstown. Despite their defeat, Moran and Matthews showed plenty of punches. Benny Rhiel was the only local boy to win his bout. Benny Battle of Ellwood City and Frankie Carik of Youngstown slugged almost too for three chapters and had the fans on edge throughout the show. There was not a vacant chair in the clubroom.

BILLY RHIEL WINS FROM BUDDY WALKER

Colleges Kick About Paying Of Federal Taxes

CHICAGO, May 24.—College football authorities, who rushed into a huddle after the U. S. supreme court Monday upheld the 19 percent government tax on football games at state universities and colleges, today signaled for a kick.

It appeared from a survey that the government might collect the $1,000,000-a-year tax in the future, but as for back taxes, well, one university (light on Wisconsin) said the U. S. treasury could try and collect. A second institution of higher education declared in effect, all right, so what, you can't get money out of an athletic board. A third kept its silence, secret. Others, more meekly, indicated they may pay back and future taxes.

Christian Missionary Alliance Second In Castletown Church League

The Harmony Baptist church team is leading the Castletown Church football league at the present time with five victories and only one defeat. In second place is the Christian Missionary Alliance team, with four wins and one loss.

Tonight weather permitting the Slippery Rock Presbyterian team will meet the Christian Missionary Alliance team at 6 o'clock at the Energy field.

ONLY 1 OUT OF 12 MEN can get this SHAVING BARGAIN

The local supply is limited to that quantity. No more can be had. This is the closest thing to a "give-away" price ever offered on these nationally-known products. The object is to actually demonstrate and sample the world's best shave to the men of this city. Get YOURS before they are all gone.

(See Offer Below)

A SPECIAL PLAN TO ADVERTISE THE IDEAL SHAVING COMBINATION!

GENUINE SCHICK INJECTOR RAZOR
Exactly the same famous razor now nationally advertised and sold in the $200 De Luxe Kit (with 20 Blades) for...

8 GENUINE SCHICK BLADES. Bathed in oil, in automatic metal injector with trigger control for changing blades without touching them. No other razor has this patented method for quick, safe blade changing.

LIFEBUOY SHAVING CREAM. GIANT TUBE. Holds 5 1/2 more moisture than ordinary lather. Soaks whiskers soft. Soothes skin. Same as now selling for 25¢ a strictly limited time, in this vicinity, at the almost "Give-Away" Price of...

WHY MORE THAN A MILLION MEN ARE NOW USING THE INJECTOR RAZOR

OLD-STYLE SHAVE... The cumberly "teeth" of this razor guard are not designed to stretch the skin (and enough ahead of the blade edge—and have a tendency to "ridge" the skin surface. Blade can nick the top of ridges, cause bleeding and smarting. And, because whisker bends over as blade strikes it, the razor seems to "pull."

SCHICK INJECTOR SHAVE... Designed to flatten and stretch the skin, the Schick guide bar is solid, has no "teeth." Skin is stretched taut, giving a smooth shaving surface. Whiskers are held stiffly upright so blade can cut them cleanly at the skin line. Result: no nicks, no pull... even "against the grain."

Double-Thickness Blades... Schick Blades are safe to take a sharper edge and hold it. Each blade individually honed, sharpened, inspected. More shaves per blade.

Sealed in a bath of oil... The blade edges are actually suspended in pure oil, preventing rusting, which would rub and dull them.

Automatic Blade Change... Give the trigger a pull and mesh-out shoots old blade in, gives a new one. Nothing to turn, unscrew, twist or reassemble.

A shave, and it's clean! Save minutes every day. No need to wipe and dry the Schick Injector. Razor after every shave... a flush under the faucet, and it's ready to put away.

LIFEBUOY SHAVING CREAM
For Toughest Beards—For Tenderest Skins

Lifebuoys extra moist, soothing lather takes all the "grump" out of every whisker—because it soaks them soft. Good for tender skins, too, because it's 20% milder than other leading shaving soaps. There are 120 to 150 smooth, clean, FRESH shaves in the big red tube.

The Best Shaving Cream You Can Buy
Plus the World's Finest Razor
With 8 Blades in Automatic Injector

At the "Give-Away" Price of 59¢

NOTICE TO ALL DEALERS: Any dealer in the New Castle trading area ready to sell shaving preparations or razors may secure this bridge by applying to his dealer, to Leve Brothers Company, Cambridge, Massachusetts, or to the Magazine Reporting Razor Company, Bridgeport, Connecticut.

Walsh Favors Barney Ross

Believes That Ageing Barney Can Defeat Henry Armstrong, Has Good Logic

By DAVIS J. WALSH

NEW YORK, May 24.—As far as this baffled and slightly bi-tired eye can reach, there's only one thing to be seriously considered in connection with the world's welterweight championship boxing bout, forty-eight hours hence, as that really Barney Ross the Boss of the McLaughlin and Cannon in fact who's going in there to defend the title against Henry Armstrong on it, maybe Joe E. Brown who has slipped in there while nobody was noticing.

Frankly, I wouldn't give Joseph E. Brown much a chance. Must Be Right. Ross, the "real" Ross, is different; so much, in fact, that if he was any more so, he'd be downright dissimilar. That's why he's 7 and 8-5 in the setting today, a price that's absolutely all right with our people. Ross must be absolutely all right—and not even Ross himself will know that until the night of the fight. I should say, however, that everybody else seems more sure about it than the fighter.

TALES IN TIDBITS

By BILL BRAUCHER
Central Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, May 24.—In baseball, just as in the stock market, sometimes they have it, and sometimes they don't. Last night a bright future was painted for Joe Kruk, a left-hander who came up with Washington late in the season and won four games. But Joe has been sent back to Trenton. Buckly Harris says it's simply a case of inability to get the ball over the plate. Going on from there, who ever expected Jimmy Fox to start being that ball this year the way he has? Last summer the back were writing Fox's major league out-of-put. The same service was being performed in behalf of Willis Hudlin, veteran of the Indians' mound staff, who was able to win only one ball game in the whole darn year of 1936. But Hudlin is one of Vill's most dependable pitchers now.

Joe Cronin of the Red Sox was looking longingly at Olson and Dick Mikkiff, young pitchers from the Little Rock farm. But Ted and Dick have been sent back to the minors for another year. And young Jim Bagby, who was ticketed for farm service, has fooled some of the critics who doubted his stuff, and is performing nice chores for Mr. Yawkey.

During the spring training season, Clark Griffith was looking all over the United States for a catcher fearing Rick Ferrell was through. Now Rick looks like a million dollars behind the plate, and has been hitting in timely and consistent style. Julius Solters, cleanup man of the Indians, was hailed as the deliverer of Tribe hopes when he finally signed his contract after holding out all during the training season. He went into a three-week batting slump and was removed from the lineup to the bench, where he sits and watches young Jeff.

FIRESTONE Gives You This High Quality Tire at This New Low Price

Because Firestone saves money by controlling and securing rubber and cotton at the sources and by more efficient manufacturing and distributing. These savings make possible extra values at lower prices. You get:

High Quality—First choice rubber and selected cotton that conform to Firestone's high standards and rigid specifications.

Long Mileage—Safe, silent tread design made of tough, slow wearing rubber that assures long mileage. Sturdy bars and rugged notches give protection against skidding.

Blowout Protection—Nine extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord by the Firestone Patented Gum-Dipping process. Every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber which counteracts internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

Puncture Protection—Due to the Firestone patented construction of two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread.

New Low Prices—Never before have all these safety features been combined in a tire priced so low.

Don't take chances on your holiday trip. Come in today. Let us put a set of these large size, rugged, long wearing tires on your car—remember, you save 25%.
